Numb. 7618.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 12. to Saturday July 16. 1737.

Petersbourg June 18.

THE last Advices this Court has received from Felt Marshal Count Munich are of the 4th Instant from the Banks of the River Inglier, which is about 70 Versts from the River Bog. His Excellency informs her Czarish Majesty, that in passing through that Country he had found every Day little Rivers that discharge themselves into the Nieper; that there was great Plenty of Grass for his Cavalry; that Beef was sold in his Camp at a Copick and a Half (which is not one Penny here) a Pound; that he was continuing his March for Oczackow, where he hoped soon to arrive, not having heard that the Turks were making any Preparations to oppose his Design. A Courier is also arrived from Felt Marshal Lacy, but the Contents of the Dispatches are not yet made publick.

Hague, July 23, N. S. The States of Holland separated on Saturday last. Before they broke up, they nominated M. de Dieu, formerly Minister of the States General at Moscow, to be one of the Commissioners for treating at Antwerp about settling Commerce with the Austrian Netherlands. M. Assendelf, Resident at Brussels, is to be the second, and M. Vilvliet of Zealand the third. Their Appointments are not yet settled, nor the Time of their Departure.

Whitehall, July 16.

On Wednesday last in the Forenoon his Majesty came from Richmond to Hide-Park, and after having reviewed the three Regiments of Foot-Guards, his Majesty returned to Richmond. On Thursday last in the Evening their Majesties and the Royal Family removed from Richmond to Hampton-Court, to pass the Remainder of the Summer there.

Whitehall, July 7, 1737.

Whereas in the Night between the Tenth and Eleventh Days of May last past, Seventy Seven Ash-Trees, belonging to Thomas Norton, of Ixworth, in the County of Suffolk, Esq; were, by Persons unknown, maliciously cut down and destroyed, Fifty five whereof were planted in a Visto from the Mansion-house of the said Thomas Norton, commonly called Ixworth Abbey: And whereas also, in the Night between the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Days of the said Month, Fifteen Poplar Trees, belonging to the said Thomas Norton, were sawn down and destroyed by Persons likewise unknown. His Majesty, for the better discovering of the Persons concerned in the Crime aforesaid, is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, I do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in cutting down and destroying the said Trees, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall receive a Reward of Twenty Guineas on such Conviction.

Tho. Norton.

Victualling Office, July 13, 1737.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 3d of August next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower-hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve his Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, ending at Michaelmas, 1738.
